

Metro South Regional Restaurant Week FAQ

What is it? A weeklong celebration of local restaurants in Brockton, Easton, Avon, Whitman, Abington, East Bridgewater, West Bridgewater, Randolph, and Stoughton.

When is it? Sunday, June 4th through Thursday, June 8th. But Restaurant Appreciation Month will last throughout the month of June!

How do I participate? Simply offer your choice of lunch and/or dinner options for the week or allow a sign to be placed in your window or out front of your business.

Who sets the prices? You can choose your own pricing for lunch or dinner.

Is this for in-house dining or take out? It is both.

Is there a fee to participate? No, but restaurants can provide a gift card for $25 for a promotional drawing for those diners who participate and send us photos.

How will it be promoted? The Chamber will run a social media campaign as well as advertising and local community outlets such as billboards and lawn signs.

How will people know which restaurants are participating? Participating restaurants will be highlighted on a dedicated webpage with links to the restaurant's web pages.

Can restaurants help to promote it? Yes, printed signs will be given to participating restaurants to share with customers.

Where can I get more information? Contact the Metro South Chamber at 508-586-0500 or cschofield@metrosouthchamber.com or Chris@metrosouthchamber.com

